

I strongly urge you not to lift the ban on cross-ownership of media-which currently prevents a single company from owning newspapers and broadcast stations in the same market.

A democracy requires free access to information and opinion. When all the media voices in a community are owned by one corporation, and there is no independent competition to keep them honest, we will lose one of the greatest safeguards of America's freedom: its independent voices.